

1. What is comorbidity?
 - c. When an individual is diagnosed with two disorders at the same time.
2. Which 2 of the following are challenges in assessing and treating comorbid disorders (select all that apply)?
 - b. Professionals have a hard time separating symptoms of autism from other co-occurring disorders.
 - c. Professionals lack proper assessment measures that are sensitive to psychopathology in individuals with autism.
3. What are common comorbid conditions in individuals with autism?
 - d. All of the above.
4. TRUE or FALSE: Some factors related to comorbidity include changes in symptoms, non-compliance, aggression, and high activity levels.
 - a. True