

1. Which of the following represent a use of functional behavioral assessment (FBA)?
 - b. Assessment of challenging behavior and changes in behavior.
2. Which of the following items represent three areas of changes that an individual could encounter that might result in challenging behavior (select all that apply)?
 - a. Biology.
 - b. Residential routines.
 - c. New staff members.
3. TRUE or FALSE: The role of FBA in dealing with persistent maladaptive behaviors is to determine the underlying function that the behavior appears to serve for an individual.
 - a. True
4. How does structured and systematic information assist in data collection?
 - a. Streamlines the use of information to make data collection more effective.