

1. What is punishment?
 - c. When a consequence follows a behavior and decreases the likelihood of that behavior happening again.
2. What is a punisher?
 - a. A stimulus that leads to a decrease in the future likelihood of a specific behavior.
3. TRUE or FALSE: Positive punishment is when the presentation of a particular stimulus follows a target behavior and leads to a decrease in the likelihood of that behavior happening again in the future.
 - a. True
4. Negative punishment is:
 - b. When a particular stimulus is removed following a target behavior, decreasing the likelihood of this behavior occurring in the future.
5. Which of the following are punishment procedures you just learned about?
 - a. Reprimands and response blocking
6. Which of the following 3 items represent ethical issues in the use of punishment?
 - b. Right to safe and humane treatment, least restrictive alternative, and right to effective treatment.