

1. What is a schedule?
 - b. A visual means of communicating a general sequence of daily activities.
2. Which of the following are the 3 prerequisite skills required for schedules (select all that apply)?
 - a. Identifying a picture from its background.
 - b. Matching identical objects.
 - d. Matching a picture with a corresponding object.
3. Group schedules are:
 - b. A schedule that indicates the general sequence of activities or events for the group.
4. Which of the following are types of group schedules (select all that apply)?
 - a. Photographic
 - c. Checklists
5. TRUE or FALSE: An individual schedule is a schedule for an individual that provides information regarding upcoming activities.
 - a. True
6. Which of the following are NOT types of individual schedules (select all that apply)?
 - a. Auditory
 - d. Dynamic