

1. What is a residential teaching community?
  - c. A social organization that maintains the process of normal everyday living and teaches necessary skills.
2. Which of the following represents one of the four barriers to effective program implementation?
  - b. Treatment is focused only on the elimination of maladaptive behavior.
3. What is the importance of maintaining a positive focus on skill acquisition?
  - b. Decreases the amount of time that is spent managing challenging behavior.
4. What are the four goals of behavioral support plans (select all that apply)?
  - a. Reduce positive or desirable outcomes for problem behavior.
  - b. Prevent escalation of the problem behavior to avoid harm to the individual and others.
  - d. Introduce the individual to logical or natural consequences.
  - e. Encourage alternative appropriate behaviors.