

1. Which of the following is a deficit found in individuals with autism that is not specific to other developmental disabilities?
 - c. Lack of intentional communication.
2. Select the items below that demonstrate how we can create communication opportunities:
 - b. Expect a little more during unplanned initiations.
3. Which of the following are identified strategies for promoting initiations and social language?
 - d. All of the above.