

1. Which of the following are important considerations for prioritizing skills?
 - d. All of the above are important considerations.
2. TRUE or FALSE: A lack of safety skills is a not a serious problem for individuals with autism and should not be the focus of training.
 - b. False
3. How can the overuse of prompting procedures increase dependence in the learner?
 - b. The learner will not be provided an opportunity to use the skill without the prompts.
4. Which of the following is not part of the four-step method to help with decision making for skill instruction?
 - d. If you can't figure out some way around it, teach something else.