Understanding the New Person-Centered Planning Regulations Training

Training is being offered that will review the Person-Centered Planning regulations promulgated November 2015 and the supporting Administrative Memorandum.

The goals of the session are to review the elements of person-centered planning that are in New York State Regulation, review the Administrative Memorandum that offers additional guidance and provide information where tools and additional person-centered planning materials can be found. This training is for service coordination and habilitation providers.

Currently two trainings are being offered, Thiells and Kingston. More will be forthcoming and will be announced in the E-Visory. Registration can be accessed at: http://www3.opwdd.ny.gov/wp/wp_catalogz2451.jsp

Save the Date for Training on HCBS Settings and Day Habilitation Services

The Division of Person-Centered Supports, in conjunction with the Division of Quality Improvement, will be holding a provider training webinar on July 11, 2016 from 1-3:30 PM.

This training will review key elements of the CMS HCBS Settings rule, OPWDD guidance, and the impact on Day Habilitation service providers and people receiving services.

Providers are asked to limit registration to two participants. Remember: You can have one registrant display the webinar at your agency site and invite as many agency staff as you need. Also, remember that a speaker- phone will enhance the webinar experience. Registration instructions are as follows:
