NYS OPWDD Works for Me Nominations

Every October, as part of National Disability Employment Awareness Month (NDEAM), OPWDD celebrates with our stakeholders in recognizing NYS businesses that employ qualified workers with developmental disabilities. We develop our business recognition list through a nomination process where individuals, families, employment agencies and other stakeholders, including Medicaid Service Coordinators (MSCs), can submit nominations for employers that merit this recognition. We know that MSCs have a great understanding of these special employment relationships and invite you to submit nominations of employers through our Works For Me nomination process.

The Works for Me announcement and nomination form can be accessed via the following link on the OPWDD website:

http://www.opwdd.ny.gov/cee/national_disability_employment_awareness_month.jsp

Please read the Works For Me Announcement, and if you would like to submit a nomination, please follow the instructions and submit your nomination (using the format indicated) to the appropriate Works for Me Contacts at your DDSO. These contacts are also listed on the OPWDD website. Deadline is June 10, 2011.
