

Individuals Perspective

Below is a letter written to a Senior Companion who has been out ill. The letter was written by the individuals she serves.

Dear Mary we miss you in class. While you have been gone we have been doing a lot of things Eric and me both go to art group Monday, Tuesday and Thursday. In the Monday art group I am doing paintings of different things in the Tuesday art group I am doing tracings of different things and in the Thursday art group I am doing collages. Wednesday we have music with Carol we are learning a lot of new songs and also adding instruments to our music. My birthday is coming up soon I wish you could be in class to celebrate it with me I will be 23 on March 23rd hope you get better soon. Eric wanted to tell you that you look really pretty. Eric and me both miss seeing your smile and talking to you in class. You make every one in class feel so happy and it isn't the same with you gone. From Sarah and Eric Brownell

P.S. my birthday wish is going to be on my birthday when I blow out my candles on my birthday cake is that you will get better and are able to come back to school soon.
