

GROUP CH-R Billing Flow

The Group CH-R service authorization is effective retroactively to March 18, 2020

Individual lives in Supervised IRA or Community Residence operated by YOUR Agency

Prior to the COVID-19 state of emergency, did the individual receive Day Habilitation, or Prevocational services from A DIFFERENT AGENCY?

YES

NO

Is the individual receiving the services that they would otherwise have received prior to the COVID-19 state of emergency?

YES

NO

Group CH-R cannot be billed to address daytime staffing needs of the individual because:

- He/she did not participate in Day Habilitation or Prevocational services prior to the COVID-19 state of emergency from a different agency

If he/she received Day Habilitation or Prevocational services from YOUR agency, these services can be delivered in the residence according to the individual pre-COVID-19 service delivery schedule.

The individual IS receiving day services.

Your Agency cannot bill Group CH-R to address daytime staffing needs.

The individual IS NOT receiving day services.

With DDRO Authorization, Your Agency may bill Group CH-R to reflect daytime staffing needs.
